Attendance Requirements

WBUonline (Virtual Campus)

Students are expected to participate in all required instructional activities in their courses. Online courses are no different in this regard; however, participation must be defined in a different manner. Student “attendance” in an online course is defined as active participation in the course as described in the course syllabus. Instructors in online courses are responsible for providing students with clear instructions for how they are required to participate in the course. Additionally, instructors are responsible for incorporating specific instructional activities within their course and will, at a minimum, have weekly mechanisms for documenting student participation. These mechanisms may include, but are not limited to, participating in a weekly discussion board, submitting/completing assignments in Blackboard, or communicating with the instructor. Students aware of necessary absences must inform the professor with as much advance notice as possible in order to make appropriate arrangements. Any student absent 25 percent or more of the online course, i.e., non-participatory during 2 or more weeks of an 8-week session, may receive an F for that course. Instructors may also file a Report of Unsatisfactory Progress for students with excessive non-participation. Any student who has not actively participated in an online class prior to the census date for any given session is considered a “no-show” and will be administratively withdrawn from the class without record. To be counted as actively participating, it is not sufficient to log in and view the course. The student must be submitting work as described in the course syllabus. Additional attendance and participation policies for each course, as defined by the instructor in the course syllabus, are considered a part of the university’s attendance policy.

University Policies

Statement on Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty: Wayland Baptist University observes a zero tolerance policy regarding academic dishonesty. Per university policy as described in the academic catalog, all cases of academic dishonesty will be reported and second offenses will result in suspension from the university.

Disability Statement: In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), it is the policy of Wayland Baptist University that no otherwise qualified person with a disability be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity in the university. The Director of Counseling, Career and Disability Services serves as the coordinator of students with disability and should be contacted concerning accommodation request at (806) 291-3765. Documentation of a disability must accompany any request for accommodations.

Accessibility issues with content in WBUonline courses or in Blackboard should be addressed to the WBU accessibility coordinator, Dr. Trish Ritschel-Trifilo, trifilot@wbu.edu or call (806) 291-3745.

Student Grade Appeals: Students shall have protection through orderly procedures against prejudices or capricious academic evaluation. A student who believes that he or she has not been held to realistic academic standards, just evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course by using the student grade appeal process described in the Academic Catalog. Appeals may not be made for advanced placement examinations or course bypass examinations. Appeals are limited to the final course grade, which may be upheld, raised, or lowered at any stage of the appeal process. Any recommendation to lower a course grade must be submitted through the Vice President of Academic Affairs to the Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee for review and approval. The Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee may instruct that the course grade be upheld, raised, or lowered to a more proper evaluation.

Course Requirements and Grading Criteria

The purpose of this course is the exam itself, so there are no other assignments, except as relate to the exam.

- Each student will submit a completed Progress Report to Dr. Crowe by the end of Week 1 (Sunday, October 25), at 11:59 p.m. (Central Time). The reports are available on Blackboard.
- Each student will complete and submit the proctor form to Dr. Crowe by the end of Week 2 (Sunday, November 1), at 11:59 p.m. (Central Time). The proctor form is available on Blackboard.
- Each student will arrange with Dr. Crowe a date and ONE four-hour block of time OR TWO two-hour blocks of time in which he or she will take the comprehensive exam during Week 5 (November 15-22). Arrangements must be settled by no later than the end of Week 2 (Sunday, November 1), at 11:59 p.m. (Central Time).
- Up to the time of the exam, Dr. Crowe will be available to provide tips and assistance in studying for the comprehensive exam, as well as discussion boards for class study/tips. Participation in these activities is voluntary.

- Each student will take his/her exam during Week 5 (November 15-22) at the time arranged with Dr. Crowe. Specifics about the rules for the exam itself appear below and are available on Blackboard.
- By the end of Week 8, students should submit their mailing addresses to Dr. Crowe (see Blackboard for more information).

Method of determining course grade: The student will receive one question from each of the course he/she took with full-time faculty at WBU in the course of the MAH degree (with the exception of 5301: Historical Methods). He/she must answer THREE of those questions (each worth 25 points) during the comprehensive exam. If a student took HIST 5302: Historiography as a REQUIRED course, he/she MUST answer the question for that course on the exam – leaving him/her with TWO questions of choice. In addition, the student will receive a short book list and a packet of primary documents (see textbook list above and additional materials on Blackboard). He/she must study those documents and prepare to answer a skills-based questions (worth 25 points) on the comprehensive exam. A student must achieve at least 80 points to pass the exam.

Dr. Crowe will notify each student of his/her letter grade as soon as all the exams for the term have been graded by the faculty of the MAH program. Students must make a grade of 80 or above to pass the comprehensive exam.

In case of failure: A student who scores lower than 80 on the exam will fail it. He/she will receive a grade of IP for the course at the end of the term and be allowed to re-test after at least 30 days from the first exam. The IP (in progress) allows the student to continue working on the exam without registering and paying for another section of the course. The number of questions on the re-test (and, thus, time limit) will correspond to the number of questions the student failed. No student will be allowed to repeat an examination more than once without taking an additional course (on the same general topic) for each question he/she fails twice.

The University has a standard grade scale:

A = 90-100, B = 80-89, C = 70-79, D = 60-69, F= below 60, W = Withdrawal, WP = withdrew passing, WF = withdrew failing, I = incomplete. An incomplete may be given within the last two weeks of a long term, within the last week of an 8-week session, or within the last two days of a microterm to a student who is passing, but has not completed a term paper, examination, or other required work for reasons beyond the student's control. A grade of "incomplete" is changed if the work required is completed prior to the last day of the next long 16-week term or 8-week session, unless the instructor designates an earlier date for completion. If the work is not completed by the appropriate date, the I is converted to an F.
