Students aware of necessary absences must inform the professor with as much advance notice as possible in order to make appropriate arrangements. Any student absent 25 percent or more of the online course, i.e., non-participatory during 2 or more weeks of an 8-week session, may receive an F for that course. Any student who has not actively participated in an online class prior to the census date for any given session is considered a “no-show” and will be administratively withdrawn from the class without record. To be counted as actively participating, it is not sufficient to log in and view the course. The student must be submitting work as described in the course syllabus.

In general, your initial post is due on Fridays and your response to colleagues are due on Sundays, Midnight, your local time zone. If you miss the week, the discussion board is automatically graded as a zero (0) without the opportunity to be completed at a later time as the discussion is essentially “over”. Following late policy procedures, making up a discussion board may be considered on a case-by-case basis and only for emergency situations.

Collaborative Paper: Teams will collaborate on an 8-10 paper that includes an introduction, hypothesis, literature review, methodology and conclusion. APA 7th Edition formatting. See Blackboard for topics, template and rubric.

Audio-Enabled Presentation: Your team will create an audio-enabled PowerPoint presentation for the team paper. Presentations are part of the Week 8 discussion board and must be posted by Sunday, Midnight at the end of Week 7. See blackboard for more information, template, and rubric.

Live Virtual Meeting: Scheduled in the first week so we can meet each other, review course expectations, and have any questions answered. See Blackboard for more information.
