OPTIONAL MATERIALS

1. Blackboard (and/or Blackboard Collaborate)—Apple App Store or Google Play (NOTE: as secondary source only; the app doesn't display all instructions for assignments!)
2. Hexham, Irving, Stephen Rost, and John W. Morehead II, eds. Encountering New Religious Movements: A Holistic Evangelical Approach. Grand Rapids, MI: Kregel, 2004.
3. Rhodes, Ron. The Challenge of the Cults and New Religions. Grand Rapids, MI: Zondervan, 2001.

COURSE OUTCOMES AND COMPETENCIES:

The student will

1. describe the origins, development, essential doctrines, and present status of new religious movements (NRMs) in America
2. Explain the appeal of such groups to the American people
3. Formulate a method that facilitates dialogue with persons affiliated with religious cults and sects

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Attendance for online courses is defined fully in the university catalog.
2. Students are expected to participate in all required instructional activities in their courses.
3. Student "attendance" in an online course is defined as active participation in the course as described in the course syllabus (completing weekly assignments).
4. Students aware of necessary absences must inform the professor with as much advance notice as possible in order to make appropriate arrangements.
5. Any student absent 25 percent or more of the online course, i.e., non-participatory during 3 or more weeks of an 11 week term, may receive an F for that course.
6. Any student who has not actively participated in an online class prior to the census date for any given term is considered a "no-show" and will be administratively withdrawn from the class without record. To be counted as actively participating, it is not sufficient to log in and view the course. The student must be submitting work as described in the course syllabus.

7. When a student reaches a number of absences considered by the instructor to be excessive, the instructor will submit a Report of Unsatisfactory Progress to the student's WBU student email account and to appropriate university personnel.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM & ACADEMIC DISHONESTY:

Wayland Baptist University observes a zero tolerance policy regarding academic dishonesty. Per university policy as described in the academic catalog, all cases of academic dishonesty will be reported and second offenses will result in suspension from the university.

DISABILITY STATEMENT:

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), it is the policy of Wayland Baptist University that no otherwise qualified person with a disability be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity in the university. The Coordinator of Counseling Services serves as the coordinator of students with a disability and should be contacted concerning accommodation requests at (806) 291-3765. Documentation of a disability must accompany any request for accommodations.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS and GRADING CRITERIA:

1. Blackboard Scavenger Hunt. The hunt is designed to help familiarize you with the essential features of Blackboard. Complete by Wednesday of Week 1 (3rd day of class). 1 point will be deducted each day for late submissions.
2. Weekly Reading Quizzes. Students will take quizzes over assigned chapters each week.
3. Weekly Discussions and/or Activities. Student interaction through class discussion and activities enhances learning and understanding. Discussion will be over the assigned readings and other materials. Discussions will help students understand one or more aspects of the religion more fully. Initial posts should be substantive, informative, and should enhance the learning experience for the student and colleagues. Interaction is expected, so subsequent responses to student posts or to instructor inquiries, and questions to others about their posts to gain clarity or deeper understanding will be part of the evaluation. See weekly grading rubric and the Course Info section of the course in Blackboard for detailed description of expectations. In final weeks, your weekly discussion will be based on presentations made by graduate students.

NOTE: Because the university classroom is a place designed for the free exchange of ideas, students are encouraged to think aloud and to be honest about their theological perspectives and concerns. Students should respect the views of their peers, addressing any concerns or questions about another's views with charity and compassion, so that the whole body of Christ might be built up (Eph. 4:11-15). NRM members during field trips (and any guest speakers, if scheduled) should be extended the same respect in order that they might see Christ reflected in your life (1 Pet. 2:12).

4. Research Paper. Write an 8-12 page paper on the life and beliefs of a significant leader in one of the new religious movements. Select one name below or another individual in consultation with the instructor. You will submit initial draft for review by one or more graduate students. You should apply their feedback to your final paper.
5. Field Trip Participation. Students will attend worship services/meetings of other faiths to provide an opportunity to encounter "real-life" adherents of these movements rather than just scholarly statements/analysis of these religions. A report will be submitted for the visit. Details of the report will be posted in Blackboard. One field trip is required. Extra credit will be available to students for additional field trips with accompanying reports, up to two (2) bonus points on the final average for each.

6. Examinations. There will be a final exam for the course. The questions will be over reading assignments, lecture material, and class discussions. MAKEUPS: Students must secure permission to not take the exam at the scheduled time prior to the conclusion of the testing period. Makeups must be taken within two weeks of the test date.

c. Weekly Quizzes/Speaker Questions	15%
d. Research	25%
e. Field Trip Report and Questions	10%
f. Exam	30%

Grade Appeal Statement: Students shall have protection through orderly procedures against prejudices or capricious academic evaluation. A student who believes that he or she has not been held to realistic academic standards, just evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course by using the student grade appeal process described in the Academic Catalog. Appeals may not be made for advanced placement examinations or course bypass examinations. Appeals are limited to the final course grade, which may be upheld, raised, or lowered at any stage of the appeal process. Any recommendation to lower a course grade must be submitted through the Vice President of Academic Affairs/Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee for review and approval. The Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee may instruct that the course grade be upheld, raised, or lowered to a more proper evaluation.
