17. Additional information as desired by the faculty member.

- ACADEMIC HONESTY (PLAGIARISM): "This class will adhere to zero tolerance for using someone else's work as your own". University students are expected to conduct themselves according to the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, forgery, or plagiarism. Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one's own work. It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with penalties associated with plagiarism states in the catalog.
- LATE PENALTY: Unless otherwise indicated, all work is due at midnight Central Time. Any work turned in after this deadline will receive a letter grade deduction for each day it is late. We are very empathetic at this University but it requires that you communicate issues in a timely manner.
