ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS:

Virtual Campus Students are expected to participate in all required instructional activities in their courses. Online courses are no different in this regard; however, participation must be defined in a different manner. Student “attendance” in an online course is defined as active participation in the course as described in the course syllabus. Instructors in online courses are responsible for providing students with clear instructions for how they are required to participate in the course. Additionally, instructors are responsible for incorporating specific instructional activities within their course and will, at a minimum, have weekly mechanisms for documenting student participation. These mechanisms may include, but are not limited to, participating in a weekly discussion board, submitting/completing assignments in Blackboard, or communicating with the instructor. Students aware of necessary absences must inform the professor with as much advance notice as possible in order to make appropriate arrangements. Any student absent 25 percent or more of the online course, i.e., non-participatory during 3 or more weeks of an 11 week term, may receive an F for that course. Instructors may also file a Report of Unsatisfactory Progress for students with excessive non-participation. Any student who has not actively participated in an online class prior to the census date for any given term is considered a “no-show” and will be administratively withdrawn from the class without record. To be counted as actively participating, it is not sufficient to log in and view the course. The student must be submitting work as described in the course syllabus. Additional attendance and participation policies for each course, as defined by the instructor in the course syllabus, are considered a part of the university’s attendance policy.

Per university policy, students are expected to attend all scheduled classes. There will be an activity each week that must be completed and attendance will be taken. This is especially important for week 1 as I must submit an attendance report. Should a situation develop that precludes timely completion of requirements, contact the instructor immediately.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND ACADEMIC DISHONESTY:

Wayland Baptist University observes a zero tolerance policy regarding academic dishonesty. Per university policy as described in the academic catalog, all cases of academic dishonesty will be reported and second offenses will result in suspension from the university.

DISABILITY STATEMENT:

“In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), it is the policy of Wayland Baptist University that no otherwise qualified person with a disability be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity in the university. The Coordinator of Counseling Services serves as the coordinator of students with a disability and should be contacted concerning accommodation requests at (806) 291- 3765. Documentation of a disability must accompany any request for accommodations.”

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING CRITERIA:

Students shall have protection through orderly procedures against prejudices or capricious academic evaluation. A student who believes that he or she has not been held to realistic academic standards, just evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course by using the student grade appeal process described in the Academic Catalog. Appeals may not be made for advanced placement examinations or course bypass examinations. Appeals are limited to the final course grade, which may be upheld, raised, or lowered at any stage of the appeal process. Any recommendation to lower a course grade must be submitted through the Executive Vice President/Provost to the Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee for review and approval. The Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee may instruct that the course grade be upheld, raised, or lowered to a more proper evaluation.

Stress Log Instructions

As part of the course requirements, each of you must keep an informal Stress log that is be updated each time you experience any type of stress. Record the incident or stressor and how you handled the type of stress. Also I want you to record results attained. Although the example is in a PDF format, please use a word document format so that I may add comments. You should use this log to support your views in the discussion board, and of course in the conclusions sections of both your midterm and final research projects. Because of the nature and the timing of the entries, the log must be in chronological order.

I also expect the assignments to be prepared using correct grammar and in a formal, 3rd person past tense style. Instructor Notes on Policy Changes regarding Dropping Classes

We are all working adults but sometimes life gets in the way. If an event occurs that gets in the way of completing assignments or other course requirements CONTACT ME IMMEDIATELY!! If you drop this course and then we talk and work something out, you may not be able to get back in. If you are out more than 48 hours you may not get back in. Please do not consider dropping without talking to me first.

Instructor's policy on Academic Dishonesty: Plagiarism will not be tolerated; students will receive an "F" on that assignment for presenting another's work as their own. Cheating on an exam will result in a zero on the exam.

Instructor Teaching Philosophy

I believe in a strong interactive two-way communicative process between student and the instructor. It is essential that you become deeply involved in this 2 way process. The course is designed to be challenging and enjoyable. My expectation is that the each student has valuable knowledge and experience that will contribute to the entire class's knowledge base. I will use a variety of teaching methods including, case studies, oral presentations and discussions. I expect our sessions to be highly interactive which requires students to demonstrate self-motivation and initiative. Reading, analysis of chapter readings, and careful preparation, along with a concerted attempt to provide complete presentations will net the learners maximum value. Relax and enjoy - this course will be a lot of fun!!
