Teaching Methods:

1. Assignments:

Weekly Essay topics are chosen so that they will not be answered adequately in not less than 300 words and must be consistent with the APA style of writing. Failure to provide a Reference and Citations will result in a grade of "0" for the Assignment. Decision on the adequacy of an answer is the instructor's. It is not subject to debate.

Assignments are graded on a 100-point scale. Assignments and Quizzes are due by midnight (11:59 P.M. Central Time) the first Sunday after the assignment is made. They will be considered late, after midnight of date due, and a deduction of 20 points per week will be taken.

Assignments will be submitted through Course Content in Blackboard. The file name WILL be Last Name and Assignment number. The way to do this is to create the file and save it. Then attach the file to the appropriate place in Blackboard. Assignments copied and pasted or created in Blackboard will be graded as such and no consideration will be made for format changes to your documents.

Assignments not submitted through Blackboard, as indicated above will not be accepted.

If you have not done so I suggest you make sure your Wayland email account is working correctly. If I send you an email it will be to your email account. If you send me an email from your private email account, I will respond to your private email account. Be advised that your Wayland email account is the preferred email account to use for this course.

If you wish to communicate with me please do so by email at (richard.warren@wayland.wbu.edu).

2. Discussion Posts:

A weekly Discussion Topic Question is presented. Each student will respond to the question in a formally written manner including citations and references. Citations and reference must adhere to APA standards. Initial response to the Discussion Question must be posted by Wednesday evening. Each student must respond to at least one of your classmates' initial post. Posting and responses must be substantial in content. Simply agreeing with an initial posting is unacceptable.

3. Exams:

Exams will be presented on Blackboard. There will be a Mid-Term and a Final Examination. Each will cover the material listed on the schedule. The final is NOT comprehensive. Exams are administered online in Blackboard and do not require proctors. You will receive an immediate feedback on your score on the objective portion of the exam, but the essays will have to be graded by me on an individual basis whereupon you will receive the total exam score.

Keep a copy of your work until the end of the course; recording errors may occur.

4. Guidelines for Homework Assignments

Goals:

Success in your career will depend greatly on your written and oral communication skills. Our school recognizes the need for students to develop proficiency in these skills, and requires all students to submit a research paper and/or provide an oral presentation in each class in this department.

Format:

The homework assignments will consist of not less than 1 page (standard double-spaced with 1 inch margins all around) of TEXT in length (Title Pages, Tables of Content, figures, pictures, graphs, and references will not be counted as text. Title Page is required. Table of Contents is not required; an Abstract is not required.) At this point, let me remind you that if you use Microsoft Word to produce your paper, its default is 1.25 inches, and you need to change it to one inch. Use only 12 point Times New Roman font on your papers. This will keep paper length consistent for everyone. Since a word processor is likely to be used in preparation of the paper, it is expected that there will be NO spelling errors. I will caution you that 'Spell Check' will not catch words spelled correctly but not in the correct context. Accuracy is important. Grammar and spelling errors will be penalized at 1 point per occurrence. Clarity can affect understanding. If your work is difficult to understand, the content is questionable.

Proper credit for references used will be included and will be cited within the paper as well as in a References page. There will be at least two references used (the text book may be used as a reference). In other words, you will have to do some research to back up your conclusions.

Note: The APA style of writing has a References page. It does not have a Works Cited page or Bibliography.

Papers will be consistent with the APA style manual format. (The requirement for APA style of writing will be worth at least 30% of your grade.)

In the Main Menu section of Blackboard is a rubric that will be used to grade Research Paper. The rubric will also be used for homework assignments.

There is also a link to the Wayland Library (LRC) and one to the Wayland Writing Center if you need help. I am also available via email.

Topics:

As listed in Assignments in Blackboard.

Attribution:

All works and illustrations used in your paper must be cited; this means crediting the source where you found the information you used to support your work. If you fail to give credit for copyrighted information you present as your own work; that constitutes plagiarism, and will be penalized by a zero for the project. ALL statements of fact MUST be supported by references and citations.

NOTE: An author must be a person and the date is the year of publication.

Citations should be in the format: (Author(s), date) or if for a quote (Author(s), date, page). If the Reference is no longer than one (1) page the citation for a quote should be (Author(s), date, paragraph). If citations are not correct a minimum of 10% will be deducted.

References – This is the source material you used to support your research project. Sources without an author and/or date should not be used. Look in the APA manual or in the Wayland Writing Center/Research and Writing Guides. If References are not correct a minimum of 10% will be deducted.

If neither references nor citations are given for your research for Homework Assignments your score will be 0 for the Assignment.

NOTE 1: References without an author (person) and a date (year of publication) will not be accepted (This means references must have both).

NOTE 2: ALL weeks' end on Sunday. All assignments and quizzes for each week are due by 11:59 P.M., midnight, on the Sunday ending the week. Exams are due on the dates scheduled.

5. Guidelines for Research Papers

Goals:

Success in your career will depend greatly on your written and oral communication skills. Our school recognizes the need for students to develop proficiency in these skills, and requires all students to submit a research paper and provide an oral presentation in each class in this department.

Format:

The Research Paper will consist of not less than 8 pages (standard double-spaced with 1 inch margins all around) of TEXT in length (Title Pages, Tables of Content, figures, pictures, graphs, quotes, and references will not be counted as text. Title Page is required. Table of Contents is not required; an Abstract is required.) At this point, let me remind you that if you use Microsoft Word to produce your paper, its default is 1.25 inches. You must change the margins to one inch – top, bottom, left, and right. Use only 12 point Times New Roman font on your papers. This will keep paper length consistent for everyone. Since a word processor is likely to be used in preparation of the paper, it is expected that there will be NO spelling errors. I will caution you that, “Spell Check” will not catch words spelled correctly but used out of context. This is not an English class. However, accuracy is important. Grammar and spelling errors will be penalized at 1 point per occurrence. Clarity can affect understanding. If your work is difficult to understand, the content is questionable.

Assertions made must be accompanied by citation and reference to give authors credit for their work. A separate Reference Page will be used to provide credit to the authors cited. There will be at least six (6) outside references used (text books do not count as references). In other words, you will have to do some research to back up your assertions and conclusions. Use of blogs, newspapers, web sites, Face Book, etc., are not reputable references for a formal research paper. So, use the Wayland Library resources for Peer Reviewed articles.

Research Papers will be consistent with the APA style manual format. (The requirement for APA style of writing will be worth at least 30% of your grade.)

In the Course Info/Syllabus section of Blackboard is a rubric that will be used to grade the Research Paper.

There is also a link to the Wayland Library (LRC) and one to the Wayland Writing Center if you need help. I am also available via email.

If you fail to give credit for copyrighted information you present as your own work; that constitutes plagiarism, and will be penalized by a zero for the project. This includes any paper that you may have written and submitted in any other class for grade. ALL statements of fact MUST be supported by references and citations.

NOTE: An author must be a person and the date is the year of publication.
