11. OPTIONAL MATERIALS

You should have access to a calculator to complete the assignments and take the exam.

12. COURSE OUTCOMES AND COMPETENCIES:

- Describe the nature of business, the role of accounting therein and importance thereof.
- Prepare financial statements consisting of the Balance Sheet, Income Statement, Statement of Owner's Equity and Statement of Cash Flows.
- Understand the importance of an accounting system and procedures for achieving internal controls.
- Discuss ethical consequences of decisions in accounting and business.
- Understand the Accounting Equation and the Components.

13. ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS:

As stated in the Wayland Catalog, students enrolled at one of the University's external campuses should make every effort to attend all class meetings. All absences must be explained to the instructor, who will then determine whether the omitted work may be made up. When a student reaches that number of absences considered by the instructor to be excessive, the instructor will so advise the student and file an unsatisfactory progress report with the campus executive director. Any student who misses 25 percent or more of the regularly scheduled class meetings may receive a grade of F in the course. Additional attendance policies for each course, as defined by the instructor in the course syllabus, are considered a part of the University's attendance policy.

14. STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM & ACADEMIC DISHONESTY:

Wayland Baptist University observes a zero tolerance policy regarding academic dishonesty. Per university policy as described in the academic catalog, all cases of academic dishonesty will be reported and second offenses will result in suspension from the university.

15. DISABILITY STATEMENT:

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), it is the policy of Wayland Baptist University that no otherwise qualified person with a disability be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity in the university. The Coordinator of Counseling Services serves as the coordinator of students with a disability and should be contacted concerning accommodation requests at (806) 291-3765. Documentation of a disability must accompany any request for accommodations.

16. COURSE REQUIREMENTS and GRADING CRITERIA:

- Format: This is an online course and you are expected to have access to the Internet and possess adequate computer competencies to email assignments as attachments, as well as, download and upload files. This course requires homework and discussions on a weekly basis. Announcements will be posted on the site from time to time and you are responsible for reading and adhering to all information in the announcements.
- Discussion Board: The instructor will initiate the discussion board activity. Students are encouraged to exchange ideas through this discussion board. Participation in the discussion board will comprise a large part of your class participation grade and takes the place of live discussion in a classroom setting. You are required to logon no later than four days after the term begins and make at least one quality post. In addition, a minimum of three posts per week are needed in order to earn full credit for class participation each week. Discussion Board participation requires that you post something of value to the discussion and should be more than a mere “I agree” or “good answer”. YOU SHOULD ALWAYS post page number(s) and/or other reference locators to back-up your comments &/or assist your peers in researching your posts. The “attendance and participation” grade will be based upon activity in three areas: achieving the minimum quantity of quality posts made during the week, posting page number(s) and/or other reference locators within your posts, and participation in CengageNOWv2.

- Assignments: A schedule of assignments will be posted to the “Assignment” area of the course in CengageNOWv2 and BlackBoard. Assigned chapters are to be read and assignments completed by 11:55pm, CST, Sunday night (which will be considered the “end” of each academic week). The course is designed to run from Monday morning to 11:55pm the following Sunday so that students will have the weekend to complete any assignments.
- Examinations: There will be a mid-term exam and a final exam. These two exams will count as 75% of your final grade.
- Semester Project: There will be a semester project that will be done in the same CengageNOWv2 program as homework. This project will count for 10% of your semester grade. This project is the “Comprehensive Problem 1” found at the end of Chapter 4 in your textbook. The project is due at the end of the term. Please consult CengageNOWv2 online for further instruction.

- Grading:

Exams (2 attempted and submitted in CengageNOWv2)	75%
Homework (attempted and submitted in CengageNOWv2)	10%
Semester Project (attempted and submitted in CengageNOWv2)	10%
Participation (BlackBoard and CengageNOWv2)	5%

100%

*Note: Course grades will be based on Wayland Baptist University policy:
A = 90-100% B = 80- 89% C = 70- 79% D = 60-69% F = below 60%
I (Incomplete) and W (Withdrawal) grades will be utilized according to University policy.*

All correspondence with the professor must occur within your WBU email account and include your full name, course title and section.

17. Grade Appeal Statement: “Students shall have protection through orderly procedures against prejudices or capricious academic evaluation. A student who believes that he or she has not been held to realistic academic standards, just evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course by using the student grade appeal process described in the Academic Catalog. Appeals may not be made for advanced placement examinations or course bypass examinations. Appeals are limited to the final course grade, which may be upheld, raised, or lowered at any stage of the appeal process. Any recommendation to lower a course grade must be submitted through the Vice President of Academic Affairs/Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee for review and approval. The Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee may instruct that the course grade be upheld, raised, or lowered to a more proper evaluation.”
