- Demonstrate knowledge of some of the critical methods used in New Testament studies.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the basic content of the New Testament and its main teachings (theological content).
- Demonstrate knowledge of the canonical process producing a more complete understanding of the New Testament.

Course Requirements:

-Blackboard usage- Understanding and using the Blackboard system is vital for success in this course. Follow all University Guidelines for Blackboard usage including Discussion Board etiquette.

- E-mail Communications-

- Students must use their WBU student e-mail accounts for communication in this class. Exceptions will be made for military students with special needs.

- Quizzes - 33%

- Reading of biblical text assigned each week with quizzes over readings. Quizzes may be taken for full credit at any point during the week on Blackboard until 11:59 p.m., Central Standard Time, on Saturday night of listed week. Once that time passes you will only receive 1/2 credit if taken prior to the Final. Quiz questions are worth 1 point each for a total of 20 possible points per quiz. This plus attendance/participation is 1/3 of the final course grade.

- Lecture Notes - 34%

- Students will watch weekly lectures covering the course materials while following along with the provided outline. At the end of weeks 2, 4 and 6 and 8 they will turn in a copy of their lecture notes to be graded for content. These may be either typed or hand written but the must be legible if written. If the instructor cannot read the materials then it does not meet the requirements. The outline will be in a Word document and a PDF so students may simply open the document and type as they listen to the lecture.

- Discussion Boards- 33%

- Students will participate in weekly discussion boards facilitated by the instructor with two entries per week by the deadlines. First Entry is the student's response to the question/statement and the second entry is a response to a classmate's entry.

- Weekly Requirements

- Students will read
 - All messages posted by the instructor in Blackboard
 - Assigned readings in the Encountering the OT and Study Bible as outlined below.
 - Articles in the Electronic version of the Bible are listed in Canonical Order in a chart at the back of the Bible. Read Articles that fall within the Biblical Chapters assigned.
- Students must participate in Discussion Board questions facilitated by the instructor-
 - Students must post at least two 100 word messages per week as outlined in the schedule below. (the paragraph below, “Attendance-External Campuses” is 145 words for example)
 - There are 8 graded forums.
 - You must log your first post on the Discussion Board before you will be able to view any other posts of classmates.
 - Proper grammar is expected when posting to the Discussion Board. If you need assistance with proper English grammar Wayland provides assistance in the writing lab. Please follow Wayland’s guide to online behavior as well. Be respectful of your classmates and their opinions
- Weekly Quizzes completed prior to weekly deadline listed above for full credit.
- Lecture’s watched/listened to and notes taken to be submitted.

NOTE WELL: All communication with the professor must be sent to the instructor’s email address.

Attendance - External Campuses

Students enrolled at one of the university's external campuses should make every effort to attend all class meetings. All absences must be explained to the instructor, who will then determine whether the omitted work may be made up. When a student reaches that number of absences considered by the instructor to be excessive, the instructor will so advise the student and file an unsatisfactory progress report with the campus dean. Any student who misses 25 percent or more of the regularly scheduled class meetings may receive a grade of F in the course. Additional attendance policies for each course, as defined by the instructor in the course syllabus, are considered a part of the university's attendance policy. A student may petition the Academic Council for exceptions to the above stated policies by filing a written request for an appeal to the provost/academic vice president.

Course Evaluation (Method of Determining Grade)

University Grading System

A	90-100	I	INCOMPLETE
B	80-89	Cr	FOR CREDIT
C	70-79	NCr	NO CREDIT
D	60-69	WP	WITHDRAWAL PASSING
F	BELOW 60	WF	WITHDRAWAL FAILING
		W	WITHDRAWAL

A grade of incomplete is changed if the deficiency is made up by midterm of the next regular semester; otherwise, it becomes "F". This grade is given only if circumstances beyond the student's control prevented completion of work during the semester enrolled and attendance requirements have been met. A grade of "CR" indicates that credit in semester hours was granted but no grade or grade points were recorded.

•Procedure for computations of final grade:

Lecture Note	34%
Discussion Boards	33%
Weekly Quizzes & Attendance/participation	33%

Academic Honesty (Plagiarism):

University students are expected to conduct themselves according to the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, forgery, or plagiarism. Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one's own work. It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with penalties associated with plagiarism stated in the catalog.

Services for the Disabled

It is university policy that no otherwise qualified disabled person be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity in the University. The Dean of Students serves the University as coordinator or activities for the handicapped and should be contacted concerning initial contact with the Dean of Student's office as soon as possible before registration to ensure adequate time for assistance.
