13. Attendance Requirements:

Since this is an online class, two definitions need to be made clear.

Attendance: Attendance means that you have logged into the class. It DOES NOT mean that you have participated. You are required to login to the class weekly. If you do not login for any two weeks, you may be dropped from the class at the instructor's discretion.

Participation:

Participation means that you have logged into the class AND you have interacted with the professor or classmates through discussion postings and/or email exchanges. This class is highly participative. To receive full credit for participation, you must post meaningful messages on 3 of 7 days during the week. Once you post your initial response to the discussion question (DQ), which is required, you must post on two additional days DURING THE SPECIFIC WEEK. The initial response is due no later than Wednesday. I recommend your initial posting to be between 200-to-300 words. The replies to fellow students and to the professor should range between 100-to-150 words. This is a general guideline to help you understand the depth we are seeking. Remember that our week begins on a Monday and ends on a Sunday.

Weekly Class Discussion Postings (Participation Guidelines):

We will have discussion questions during selected weeks (Refer Syllabus) where students are required to respond to the initial posting from the Instructor as well as to respond to two (2) postings from fellow students. Please make sure you write these answers by conducting some research and cite both our text and external credible sources.

This class is highly participative. The class instruction is collaborative and experiential rather than primary lecture. It is expected that you participate weekly on 3 out of 7 days Participation credit will be earned for relevant remarks that involve posting questions; answering questions posted by your peers', sharing relevant articles you've found, or relevant information that can be shared with the class that will add to the course content. This course will become alive if you PARTICIPATE - and you become an active member of this course.

Your postings in the discussion area should be substantive. You should have at least 3 substantive postings per week. Answers such as "me too" or "I agree" do not qualify as relevant, substantive participation. I am looking for your thoughts, ideas and opinions. The Weekly Discussion Participation is worth 15 percent of your final grade.

Participation Chart – Sample Postings:

IP = Initial Post (Due by Wednesday of each week)

PR = Peer Response (Post on two days during the week different from the IP)

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday	MET	GRADE%

18. Additional information as desired by the faculty member.

General Information:

This syllabus contains a general overview of the course only. Once you have read and understood everything contained in the syllabus, I will ask you to confirm with your signature.

Your confirmation will also confirm that you understand and will adhere to the following statement: “This class will adhere to zero tolerance for using someone else’s work as your own.”

TURNING IN ASSIGNMENTS:

All assignments will be turned in on the Blackboard Learning Platform. Students are to turn in assignments in the same area where they downloaded any assignments/quizzes/exams.

POLICY ON INCOMPLETES:

Wayland's policy on giving grades of Incomplete in a course is outlined in the University's catalog. As a supplement to that catalog, my policy is to assign a one-letter-grade reduction upon removal of the Incomplete. The only exceptions to this are in the case of either documented absence from your home area because of occupational requirements which makes Internet access impossible, or documented severe illness. Claims of not having the time to finish, or mismanagement of that time will not be considered a valid excuse. There are 11 weeks in the term (not counting any breaks), giving you sufficient time to complete all requirements by the assigned due dates. My advice is to work ahead whenever possible to minimize the effects of unanticipated delays.

ONLINE CLASSROOM ACTIVITY/DISCUSSION:

Please make sure to participate in the classroom discussions. Your knowledge and experience is valued. Please ensure you keep a positive and professional demeanor always. All students are expected to post an Initial Posting to the Discussion Board and respond to 2 peers throughout the week. A minimum of 3 quality posts on 3 separate days will earn full credit. The first Discussion Activity is to Introduce Yourself due by the end of the day before the next class meeting.

QUIZZES/MIDTERM/FINAL EXAM:

MGMT 5305 – VC01*DR. FLORES – Winter 2017

These assessments will be available on the Blackboard home page. Each assessment can be taken twice, and are only available during the week they are due. Due dates are listed on the class schedule. The Final Examination is comprehensive.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

Internet references WILL NOT BE ACCEPTABLE in this course. ALL references will come from Professional Journal articles and will be derived from the WBU Online Library.

STUDY HABITS:

Careful and timely reading and study as well as completion of all written assignments by the expected dates are critical to your success in this course. Text readings will normally coincide with coverage of the material in lessons. This will facilitate your active participation in class discussions. Please make sure to stay abreast with the readings. You will perform much better on the exam if you have a clear idea of the topics.

MISCELLANEOUS:

You are encouraged to be "entrepreneurial" in your approach to the class, in your assignments, and in your class presentations and interactions. Your observations or experiences, and how they might relate to the subject at hand, have the potential to enhance all the class sessions. Please share those of value so that you may be a resource to all participants including me! You are also encouraged to employ the systems perspective and wear the "manager's hat" in relating to the issues so that you will be able to think about them critically from multiple dimensions.

A NOTE ON DROPPING THE COURSE:

If you drop the course, please let me know with an E-mail message. Very often I do not receive drop notices in a timely manner, and sometimes not at all. Please help me to keep the class roll up to date.
