Attendance Requirements:

1. Attendance for online courses is defined fully in the university catalog:
http://catalog.wbu.edu/content.php?catoid=3&navoid=80#Class_Attendance_-_Online
2. Students are expected to participate in all required instructional activities in their courses.
3. Student “attendance” in an online course is defined as active participation in the course as described in the course syllabus.
4. Students aware of necessary absences must inform the professor with as much advance notice as possible in order to make appropriate arrangements.
5. Any student absent 25 percent or more of the online course, i.e., non-participatory during 3 or more weeks of an 11 week term, may receive an F for that course.
6. Any student who has not actively participated in an online class prior to the census date for any given term is considered a "no-show" and will be administratively withdrawn from the class without record. To be counted as actively participating, it is not sufficient to log in and view the course. The student must be submitting work as described in the course syllabus.
7. When a student reaches a number of absences considered by the instructor to be excessive, the instructor will submit a Report of Unsatisfactory Progress to the student’s WBU student email account and to appropriate university personnel.

Disability Statement: In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), it is the policy of Wayland Baptist University that no otherwise qualified person with a disability be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity in the university. The Coordinator of Counseling Services serves as the coordinator of students with a disability and should be contacted concerning accommodation requests at (806) 291- 3765. Documentation of a disability must accompany any request for accommodations.” (This statement is required on all university syllabi.)

Course Requirements and Grading Criteria:

- Weekly Reading quiz corresponding to the reading from the Encountering the New Testament textbook and the assigned Bible passages. 10 quizzes of which the student may drop two at the end of the semester.
- Examinations: Three exams to be given during the semester as listed in the course outline. The final exam is not comprehensive, but covers material after the second exam. Exam two will be proctored. The student is responsible to secure an approved proctor:
http://www.wbu.edu/academics/online_programs/proctor/proctorrequest.htm
WBU testing sites do not require Virtual Campus approval. Online remote proctoring is an option if time or location hinders other approved testing venues.
- Journal: Students will complete a weekly journal assignment of 400-500 words responding to a prompt by the instructor based on the reading materials for the week, including the Bible, the textbook and the lecture notes. Detailed journal instructions will be found on Blackboard.
- Participation: Students are expected to participate in class with reading assignments, virtual login attendance and student journal participation. Failure to participate in journal assignments may result in loss of points from the student's final grade.

Extra Credit: No extra credit will be offered.

- Procedure for computations of final grade

Exam 1,2,3 @15% each	45%
Weekly Journal	20%
Weekly Quiz average	35%

A grade of incomplete is changed if the deficiency is made up by midterm of the next regular semester; otherwise, it becomes "F". This grade is given only if circumstances beyond the student's control prevented completion of work during the semester enrolled

Students shall have protection through orderly procedures against prejudices or capricious academic evaluation. A student who believes that he or she has not been held to realistic academic standards, just evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course by using the student grade appeal process described in the Academic Catalog. Appeals may not be made for advanced placement examinations or course bypass examinations. Appeals are limited to the final course grade, which may be upheld, raised, or lowered at any stage of the appeal process. Any recommendation to lower a course grade must be submitted through the Executive Vice President/Provost to the Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee for review and approval. The Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee may instruct that the course grade be upheld, raised, or lowered to a more proper evaluation.
