13. Attendance Requirements:

14. Statement on Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty: Wayland Baptist University observes a zero tolerance policy regarding academic dishonesty. Per university policy as described in the academic catalog, all cases of academic dishonesty will be reported and second offenses will result in suspension from the university.

15. Disability Statement: “In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), it is the policy of Wayland Baptist University that no otherwise qualified person with a disability be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity in the university. The Coordinator of Counseling Services serves as the coordinator of students with a disability and should be contacted concerning accommodation requests at (806) 291- 3765. Documentation of a disability must accompany any request for accommodations.”

16. Course Requirements and Grading Criteria: Grading is based on quizzes, discussion board posts, a final exam, and participation. Quizzes will be delivered via blackboard and will be based on textbook readings. Quizzes will be composed of multiple choice and fill-in-the-blank question options. Every week a discussion board question will be posted and students are required to respond in one paragraph length to the question and also comment on two classmates’ posts. Final exam will be cumulative and essay style. Final exam will be posted two weeks prior to the end of the term. Participation will be based on the students overall attendance in the course. There are 9 quizzes worth 50 points each, 10 discussion board post weeks worth 20 points each, final exam worth 200 points, and participation points for 10 weeks, worth 10 points each.

Students shall have protection through orderly procedures against prejudices or capricious academic evaluation. A student who believes that he or she has not been held to realistic academic standards, just evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course by using the student grade appeal process described in the Academic Catalog. Appeals may not be made for advanced placement examinations or course bypass examinations. Appeals are limited to the final course grade, which may be upheld, raised, or lowered at any stage of the appeal process. Any recommendation to lower a course grade must be submitted through the Executive Vice President/Provost to the Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee for review and approval. The Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee may instruct that the course grade be upheld, raised, or lowered to a more proper evaluation.
