CATALOG DESCRIPTION:

This course is mandatory for all students to complete requirements for graduation. It is a 15-clock-hour seminar which allows students to complete various requirements and testing. The graduation fee is included in the course fee, and the seminar is required for graduation. Students who are student teaching must take this course the semester prior to student teaching. Fee may vary by student status.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK AND RESOURCES: No textbook is required for this course. Materials will be accessible through our page on Blackboard so you may complete the assignments on your own.

OPTIONAL MATERIALS: None

COURSE OUTCOMES AND COMPETENCIES:

By the conclusion of this course, students will have:

- 1) Received instruction on completing the major steps required to graduate from Wayland Baptist University;
- 2) Received information on optional activities related to graduation ceremonies and traditions;
- 3) Received valuable content related to finding employment after college, including job searching and interviewing, building a resume and other related tasks;

- 4) Received valuable content related to life after college, including developing a home budget for responsible spending, saving and debt-repayment; communicating professionally; keeping in touch with Wayland as an alumnus; and taking advantage of alumni benefits available to them.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS:

This is an online course, so no attendance is taken. However, if the first week's assignments are not completed on time, a student may be considered "non-attending" and runs the risk of being dropped from the course. Completing the course checklist may be done by the attached schedule or a student may choose to work ahead and complete the course requirements early. The deadlines are set to keep workflow coming and to verify a student is still participating in the course. The final completed assignments are due by Oct. 4, 2024.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM & ACADEMIC DISHONESTY:

Wayland Baptist University observes a zero tolerance policy regarding academic dishonesty. Per university policy as described in the academic catalog, all cases of academic dishonesty will be reported and second offenses will result in suspension from the university. The policy statement is located in Course Information of your course. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, forgery, or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one's own work).

DISABILITY STATEMENT:

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), it is the policy of Wayland Baptist University that no otherwise qualified person with a disability be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity in the university. The Coordinator of Counseling Services serves as the coordinator of students with a disability and should be contacted concerning accommodation requests at (806) 291-3765. Documentation of a disability must accompany any request for accommodations.
