Attendance Requirements

WBUonline

Students are expected to participate in all required instructional activities in their courses. Online courses are no different in this regard; however, participation must be defined in a different manner. Student “attendance” in an online course is defined as active participation in the course as described in the course syllabus. Instructors in online courses are responsible for providing students with clear instructions for how they are required to participate in the course. Additionally, instructors are responsible for incorporating specific instructional activities within their course and will, at a minimum, have weekly mechanisms for documenting student participation. These mechanisms may include, but are not limited to, participating in a weekly discussion board, submitting/completing assignments in Blackboard, or communicating with the instructor. Students aware of necessary absences must inform the professor with as much advance notice as possible in order to make appropriate arrangements. Any student absent 25 percent or more of the online course, i.e., non-participatory during 2 or more weeks of an 8-week session, may receive an F for that course. Instructors may also file a Report of Unsatisfactory Progress for students with excessive non-participation. Any student who has not actively participated in an online class prior to the census date for any given session is considered a “no-show” and will be administratively withdrawn from the class without record. To be counted as actively participating, it is not sufficient to log in and view the course. The student must be submitting work as described in the course syllabus. Additional attendance and participation policies for each course, as defined by the instructor in the course syllabus, are considered a part of the university’s attendance policy.

Course Requirements and Grading Criteria

DISCUSSION BOARD:

Each week of the course contains one or more discussion topics relating to the material covered in that weekly unit. You are required to make a minimum of two posts per discussion topic. You are encouraged to make more value-added posts--the more the merrier. In online education, a lot of the learning comes from other learners. We are all partners in this special online educational experience. These posts (responses) will be graded according to the following policy.

When submitting your online posts, concentrate on the quality of your responses. There are two graded components of participation - one is frequency and the other is quality.

- Frequency of participation is 50% of your Discussion score for the week. If you participate on three (3) different days for a total of at least four weekly posts, your score for this component will be an A (for this ½ of the grade). If you make no posts for the week, your score is an F. If you make two to three posts for the week, your grade will range from D to B for this grade component.
- Quality of participation is the other 50% of your Discussion score for the week. Please note ----A quality response is not a "one liner." It is a thoughtful presentation of an idea in response to a question posted by the instructor or in response to another student's response or question. Examples of quality postings include: providing additional information to the discussion; elaborating on previous comments; presenting explanations of concepts or methods to help fellow students; and providing reasons for or against something in a persuasive fashion. Feel free to do some research on the web or in the online library and use the research in your comments within the threaded discussions.

Read and respond to the comments by your fellow classmates, as well as to the instructor's comments. This is your opportunity to bring your real world experiences to the class.

- Focus on the issues raised. They are synthesizing questions that show your mastery of the material.
- Relate your comments to not only the assigned readings, but also to your practical experiences and self-discovery of outside readings. The only way I can give you credit for visiting the discussion board is if you actually post something of substance that adds value to the class discussion. Comments such as "I agree" or "Yes, I think so, too" will not be considered for credit. I grade discussion boards based upon the quantity, frequency and quality of your posts. The quality of your posts is subjective and I am looking for value added comments.
- Remember for some of these discussions, there may not be a "right" answer. For these and all other discussions, please be prepared to defend your position.

HOMEWORK:

There will be weekly homework that will be assigned and discussed on blackboard. Your grade will be determined in your analysis.

QUIZZES:

There will weekly quizzes throughout the term. There will not be any make quizzes. A few quiz grades may be dropped in the final grade calculation.

EXAMS:

Three exams will be given. The test format will generally be that of (1) objective questions (i.e., multiple choice) and (2) problem questions. Make-up exams will not be given unless prior arrangements have been made and approved with the instructor.

GRADE DISTRIBUTION:

The semester grade will be determined by the following distribution:

1. Tests (4)	48%
2. Post Quizzes	22%
3. Homework	22%
4. Discussion Board	8%
	100%

The University has a standard grade scale:

A = 90-100, B = 80-89, C = 70-79, D = 60-69, F= below 60, W = Withdrawal, WP = withdrew passing, WF = withdrew failing, I = incomplete. An incomplete may be given within the last two weeks of a long term, within the last week of an 8-week session, or within the last two days of a microterm to a student who is passing, but has not completed a term paper, examination, or other required work for reasons beyond the student's control. A grade of "incomplete" is changed if the work required is completed prior to the last day of the next long 16-week term or 8-week session, unless the instructor designates an earlier date for completion. If the work is not completed by the appropriate date, the I is converted to an F.

Student Grade Appeals: Students shall have protection through orderly procedures against prejudices or capricious academic evaluation. A student who believes that he or she has not been held to realistic academic standards, just evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course by using the student grade appeal process described in the Academic Catalog. Appeals may not be made for advanced placement examinations or course bypass examinations. Appeals are limited to the final course grade, which may be upheld, raised, or lowered at any stage of the appeal process. Any recommendation to lower a course grade must be submitted through the Vice President of Academic Affairs to the Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee for review and approval. The Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee may instruct that the course grade be upheld, raised, or lowered to a more proper evaluation.
