CATALOG DESCRIPTION

This seminar will guide the student to integrate the knowledge and skills learned in his/her course of study through reflection on the ways in which these courses can strengthen the practice of specific ministries.

PREREQUISITE KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND COURSE NUMBERS

None.

The purpose of the Capstone Course is to integrate the studies completed in the Master of Christian Ministry degree with the student's intended field of ministry. Therefore, the course should only be taken after the successful conclusion of all courses in the core of the MCM degree, preferably during the last term of attendance.

COURSE OUTCOME COMPETENCIES

The student will:

- demonstrate an understanding of the application of course material from all courses taken at Wayland Baptist University in the Master of Christian Ministry Program.
- demonstrate a grasp of the Biblical, theological, and social context as well as the goals, strategies, and personal attributes necessary for effective servant leadership in his/her chosen field of ministry.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

1. Attendance for online courses is defined fully in the university catalog:
http://catalog.wbu.edu/content.php?catoid=3&navoid=77#Graduate Policies and Procedures
2. Students are expected to participate in all required instructional activities in their courses.
3. Student "attendance" in an online course is defined as active participation in the course as described in the course syllabus.
4. Students aware of necessary absences must inform the professor with as much advance notice as possible in order to make appropriate arrangements.

5. Any student absent 25 percent or more of the online course, i.e., non-participatory during 3 or more weeks of an 11 week term, may receive an F for that course.
6. Any student who has not actively participated in an online class prior to the census date for any given term is considered a "no-show" and will be administratively withdrawn from the class without record. To be counted as actively participating, it is not sufficient to log in and view the course. The student must be submitting work as described in the course syllabus.
7. When a student reaches a number of absences considered by the instructor to be excessive, the instructor will submit a Report of Unsatisfactory Progress to the student's WBU student email account and to appropriate university personnel.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Wayland Baptist University observes a zero tolerance policy regarding academic dishonesty. Per university policy as described in the academic catalog, all cases of academic dishonesty will be reported and second offenses will result in suspension from the university.

DISABILITY STATEMENT

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), it is the policy of Wayland Baptist University that no otherwise qualified person with a disability be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity in the university. The Coordinator of Counseling Services serves as the coordinator of students with a disability and should be contacted concerning accommodation requests at (806) 291- 3765. Documentation of a disability must accompany any request for accommodations.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING CRITERIA

1. Field of Ministry Position Paper. Student will write a 1000-1250 word explanation of her or his chosen field of ministry. Student will post this paper through the peer and self assessment tool during the second week of class. The paper will include the following:
 - Biblical, theological, and social contexts for such a ministry
 - Needs, goals, and strategies for effective ministry in such a field
2. Courses of Study Reaction/Reflection Papers. Student will write an 800-1000 word reaction/reflection over one or more of the courses taken in the core of the Master of Christian Ministry degree during a five week period. Students will post these papers through the peer and self assessment tool.
 - Each paper should include 4-5 ideas, concepts, tools, books, principles, etc. gleaned from the course under discussion
 - Each paper will describe how the ideas, concepts, tools, books, and principles will be informative and useful in his or her chosen field of ministry
3. Reflective Analysis of Ministry Preparation. Student will write an 800-1000 word reaction/reflection on overall preparation for ministry, taking into consideration personal evaluation of qualifications, attributes, attitudes, and personality for such a ministry, with attention to the effectiveness of Wayland studies in preparing the student for ministry. Students will post these papers through the peer and self assessment tool.

4. Peer and Self Assessments. Students will review position papers, reaction/reflection papers, and reflective analyses of classmates, providing evaluations and feedback. Students will then review their own work based on observations in classmates' work and provide a self-evaluation and feedback.
5. Discussion Boards. Student will participate in discussion with classmates and professors during the term. Discussions may include topic-specific dialogues on calling, fields of ministry, lessons from core courses, case studies, review of MCM program, and/or ministry development plans.
6. Annotated Bibliography Wiki. Student will contribute to the creation of an annotated bibliography of texts for further reading, to prepare for a habit of lifelong learning. (Annotation means to give an explanation after the bibliographic reference as to why the text was selected.)
7. Plans for Ministry and Development. Student will write a 900-100 word blog outlining plans for ministry in the coming year and specific plans for ministry development. Books generated from the annotated bibliography may be identified as reading resources as a part of development plan.

GRADING CRITERIA

The grade for the capstone course is Credit/Non-credit. The grade for each individual assignment, however, will be based on the university grading scale. There is no format to allow late submissions of material and evaluations on the peer and self assessment tool, so timely work is essential. Students must complete the course with a minimum average of 70 for the assignments.

Procedure Used for Computation of Final Grade

- | | |
|--|-----|
| a. Discussion Boards: | 20% |
| b. Ministry Position Paper: | 20% |
| c. Courses Reaction/Reflection Papers: | 25% |
| d. Ministry Preparation Analysis: | 15% |
| e. Annotated Bibliography: | 10% |
| f. Plan for ministry and development | 10% |

Students shall have protection through orderly procedures against prejudices or capricious academic evaluation. A student who believes that he or she has not been held to realistic academic standards, just evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course by using the student grade appeal process described in the Academic Catalog. Appeals may not be made for advanced placement examinations or course bypass examinations. Appeals are limited to the final course grade, which may be upheld, raised, or lowered at any stage of the appeal process. Any recommendation to lower a course grade must be submitted through the Executive Vice President/Provost to the Faculty Assembly

Grade Appeals Committee for review and approval. The Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee may instruct that the course grade be upheld, raised, or lowered to a more proper evaluation.
