PREREQUISITE KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND COURSE NUMBERS

6 credits in RLGN/RLED 5111-RLGN/RLED 5116, 1 credit in RLGN/RLED 5161 and completion of more than half of the hours necessary for the M.Div. degree

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK AND RESOURCE MATERIALS

- None for RLGN/RLED 5162 course itself.
- Will need text for whichever section for which you serve as small group leader (RLGN/RLED 5111-5116).

COURSE OUTCOME COMPETENCIES

Students will –

1. Demonstrate ability to lead a group of students through the practice of and reflection on one or more spiritual disciplines.
2. Learn to assess the participation and spiritual development of small group members, providing evaluation, instruction, and recommendations as appropriate.
3. Evaluate the impact of the MDiv spiritual development program in your personal and corporate spiritual life.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

1. Attendance for online courses is defined fully in the university catalog:
http://catalog.wbu.edu/content.php?catoid=3&navoid=80#Class Attendance - Online
2. Students are expected to participate in all required instructional activities in their courses.
3. Student “attendance” in an online course is defined as active participation in the course as described in the course syllabus.
4. Students aware of necessary absences must inform the professor with as much advance notice as possible in order to make appropriate arrangements.
5. Any student absent 25 percent or more of the online course, i.e., non-participatory during 3 or more weeks of an 11 week term, may receive an F for that course.
6. Any student who has not actively participated in an online class prior to the census date for any given term is considered a "no-show" and will be administratively withdrawn from the class without record. To be counted as actively participating, it is not sufficient to log in and view the course. The student must be submitting work as described in the course syllabus.
7. When a student reaches a number of absences considered by the instructor to be excessive, the instructor will submit a Report of Unsatisfactory Progress to the student’s WBU student email account and to appropriate university personnel.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Wayland Baptist University observes a zero tolerance policy regarding academic dishonesty. Per university policy as described in the academic catalog, all cases of academic dishonesty will be reported and second offenses will result in suspension from the university.

DISABILITY STATEMENT

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), it is the policy of Wayland Baptist University that no otherwise qualified person with a disability be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity in the university. The Coordinator of Counseling Services serves as the coordinator of students with a disability and should be contacted concerning accommodation requests at (806) 291- 3765. Documentation of a disability must accompany any request for accommodations.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING CRITERIA

1. Lead a spiritual formation group. Under the supervision of a faculty member, the student will serve as mentor to a group of students studying and practicing one or more spiritual disciplines. The student must be approved for participation in the course before registering. Upon approval, the student will be assigned to the faculty member and topic. The student will prepare the course for delivery through Blackboard and will lead the group for the eleven weeks of the course. Student will evaluate and assign grades to student assignments. The supervising faculty member will assess the student's leadership of the group at the end of term. The supervising faculty member will serve as a resource to the student facilitator on class format, Blackboard, and other issues related to conducting the course. The student, however, is the facilitator of the course.
2. Spiritual Formation Reflective Paper. Drawing from your study of RLGN/RLED 5354 Spiritual Disciplines and Christian Spirituality and your practice of various disciplines through small groups RLGN/RLED 5111-16, write a reflective paper about the process and value of spiritual formation in general as well as how each small group experience impacted your growth in the Christian faith. Your reflections can include both strengths and weaknesses of the courses themselves but must include significant reflection on how each discipline studied impacted your personal spiritual life, your corporate experience within the context of the body of Christ, and your active engagement in ministry and mission.

GRADING CRITERIA

1. University Grading Scale

Cr	Credit
NCr	No Credit

2. Procedure Used for Computation of Final Grade

Student will be assessed a grade for each assignment and must earn 70% or better to receive credit in the course.

- a. Evaluation of leadership by supervising faculty member 75%

b. Evaluation of reflective paper by 5161 instructor

Students shall have protection through orderly procedures against prejudices or capricious academic evaluation. A student who believes that he or she has not been held to realistic academic standards, just evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course by using the student grade appeal process described in the Academic Catalog. Appeals may not be made for advanced placement examinations or course bypass examinations. Appeals are limited to the final course grade, which may be upheld, raised, or lowered at any stage of the appeal process. Any recommendation to lower a course grade must be submitted through the Executive Vice President/Provost to the Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee for review and approval. The Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee may instruct that the course grade be upheld, raised, or lowered to a more proper evaluation.
