- Assess system parameters and recognize symptoms, problems, and causes to change programs, and recommend strategies that can increase motivation to change.
- Assess major OD intervention techniques and how they may be applied.
- Through case studies, compare team problems and assess why teams may not be operating at optimum capacity.

Attendance Requirements

You are expected to participate in all required instructional activities in their courses. Online courses are no different in this regard; however, participation must be defined in a different manner. Student “attendance” in an online course is defined as active participation in the course as described in the course syllabus. Instructors in online courses are responsible for providing you with clear instructions for how you are required to participate in the course. Additionally, instructors are responsible for incorporating specific instructional activities within their course and will, at a minimum, have weekly mechanisms for documenting student participation. These mechanisms may include, but are not limited to, participating in a weekly discussion board, submitting/completing assignments in Blackboard, or communicating with the instructor. Students aware of necessary absences must inform the professor with as much advance notice as possible in order to make appropriate arrangements. Anyone absent 25 percent or more of the online course, i.e., non-participatory during 2 or more weeks of an 8-week session, may receive an F for that course. Instructors may also file a Report of Unsatisfactory Progress for students with excessive non-participation. Anyone who has not actively participated in an online class prior to the census date for any given session is considered a “no-show” and will be administratively withdrawn from the class without record. The Census Date for the Summer term is June 2, 2023. To be counted as actively participating, it is not sufficient to log in and view the course. You must be submitting work as described in the course syllabus. Additional attendance and participation policies for each course, as defined by the instructor in the course syllabus, are considered a part of the university’s attendance policy.

University Policies

Statement on Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty: Wayland Baptist University observes a zero tolerance policy regarding academic dishonesty. Per university policy as described in the academic catalog, all cases of academic dishonesty will be reported and second offenses will result in suspension from the university.

Disability Statement: In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), it is the policy of Wayland Baptist University that no otherwise qualified person with a disability be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any educational program or activity in the university. The Director of Counseling, Career and Disability Services serves as the coordinator of students with disability and should be contacted concerning accommodation request at (806) 291-3765. Documentation of a disability must accompany any request for accommodations.

Accessibility issues with content in WBUonline courses or in Blackboard should be addressed to the WBU accessibility coordinator, Dr. Trish Ritschel-Trifilo, trifilot@wbu.edu or call (806) 291-3745.

Student Grade Appeals: Students shall have protection through orderly procedures against prejudices or capricious academic evaluation. A student who believes that he or she has not been held to realistic academic standards, just evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course by using the student grade appeal process described in the Academic Catalog. Appeals may not be made for advanced placement examinations or course bypass examinations. Appeals are limited to the final course grade, which may be upheld, raised, or lowered at any stage of the appeal process. Any recommendation to lower a course grade must be submitted through the Vice President of Academic Affairs to the Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee for review and approval. The Faculty Assembly Grade Appeals Committee may instruct that the course grade be upheld, raised, or lowered to a more proper evaluation.

Course Requirements and Grading Criteria

Course Assessment Activities: Throughout this course, you will demonstrate your mastery of the concepts covered by participating in discussion board threads, conducting case studies, completing a research paper, and accomplishing a mid-term and final exam.

Discussion Boards: Each week (aside from Week 8), two discussion board prompts will be posted within Discussion Board. Students will respond to each discussion board prompt during the associated week. Follow the instructions in the forum for due dates within the associated week. Additionally, each student will respond substantively to a minimum of two initial posts made by their classmates for each discussion and respond to any questions posted to their posts before the end of the week (i.e., responses to week 1 discussions must be complete by Sunday, midnight, of week 1). The quality of students’ responses within these weekly discussion board sessions will be assessed. Discussion Board Participation contribute 28% toward your final grade.

Case Studies: Students will review 5 assigned case studies (due weeks 2, 3, 4, 5, and 7) based on the course materials. Each case study should have 5 sections: (1) Summary, (2) identification of the problem, (3) your recommendations, (4) answers to any case study questions, and (5) your reflections on the case. Include a title page and reference page (no abstract) and utilize APA styling. Case studies should have approximately 3-5 pages of body and include at least 1 scholarly reference aside from the course text (minimum of 2). Case Study Summaries contribute 30% toward your final grade.

Research Paper: A research paper (minimum 10-12 pages of content, excluding title page, abstract, and references), referencing at least six peer-reviewed journal articles, will be developed on a subject directly related to Organizational Development and Change. you will post your topic to the appropriate discussion board for approval. This research will enable students to demonstrate a growing proficiency in organizational development and organizational leadership. Topics must be selected, posted to the appropriate discussion board (follow the instructions in the Week 2 Folder), and approved at any time after the start of the course, but no later than the second week of class. Proper APA format is required. Research Paper contributes 16% toward your final grade.

Exams: Two exams will be given throughout the course (in Weeks 4 and 8). The exams will be a mix of multiple choice/guess and fill-in-the-blank questions. Exam 1 will cover Chapters 1-11 from the text and Exam 2 will cover Chapters 12-21. Students will have 4 hours to complete each exam. Exams contributes 26% toward your final grade.

Procedures Used to Compute Final Course Grade:

Evaluated Area	Percentage
1. Discussion Board Posts and Substantive Peer Interaction	28%
2. Case Study Reviews	30%
3. Research Paper	16%
4. Exams	26%

The University has a standard grade scale:

A = 90-100, B = 80-89, C = 70-79, D = 60-69, F= below 60, W = Withdrawal, WP = withdrew passing, WF = withdrew failing, I = incomplete. An incomplete may be given within the last two weeks of a long term, within the last week of an 8-week session, or within the last two days of a microterm to a student who is passing, but has not completed a term paper, examination, or other required work for reasons beyond the student's control. A grade of "incomplete" is changed if the work required is completed prior to the last day of the next long 16-week term or 8-week session, unless the instructor designates an earlier date for completion. If the work is not completed by the appropriate date, the I is converted to an F.
